“ I had the privilege of meeting and working with Ashley for a short period of time while she was taking her test at Apollo. I was so excited for her when she passed her test. She told me how her dad was thinking about taking it with her just because he likes the challenge. She really touched my life with her beautiful smile and sweet personality. My thoughts and prayers go out to all her family and friends.

“ I knew Ashley a little from a common friend... From what I knew of her she was a wonderful person out to help anybody in any way she could... I know she would have made such a great mother to little Conner it's just a shame we didn't get to see it... Her and baby Conner are in heaven sharing their life with Jesus now... As bad as it pains everyone to lose them they are beautiful flowers in God's garden now.. For he only calls home the most beautiful flowers he can pick!!! The Dyer family especially Ashley's Mom and Dad my heart is so heavy for you guys... I know what it's like to lose your child and its a pain I wouldn't wish on no one... So to lose a child and a grandchild I can not imagine the pain you guys are going through... So I will keep you all in my prayers.. I pray that the Lord will hold you all so close and let you know it will all be ok just when you need it the most... R.I.P Ashley and Baby Conner

“ Dear Dyer family,
I am so sorry for the losses and grief you have had to endure. My words can never be enough during such a sad time. I do, however, want you to know that Ashley was such a kind spirit. She always had a smile on her face and was always willing to help me whenever I needed anything. I pray that God will surround you all with His healing arms. The pain will never go away, but through Him, you can begin to heal and find peace.
