“ I sat in front of Bobby in Homeroom in High School my Sophomore year. For some reason I called him "Bobby R". We had a million laughs together. He genuinely made me smile. Bobby was a really good guy and I knew it even back then. May he rest peacefully always.

*I've always called and still call him my tweety-weety handsome man!!!!
With my heart in the condition it's in, I can't travel. God knows my heart. Thank you all for these memories. I love and miss everyone so much. Thank you Uncle Charles and Auntie Diane for everything you've done.
I thank God every day for the family I have. I love and miss everyone*
