“ Loved you like a brother more than a cousin. So sorry I get so sick and have to stay home. But it is not good to be out. Don't like giving you up. But I think I will be seeing you in a little while. When I scream Hoolieo. You will know I have seen Jesus and headed for family. ”

“ I just talked to you Thursday morning and I am so glad that we did. Charles, you were like the big brother I never had, and you were like a second Daddy as well. I'll never forget our ride to Columbus on the hogs and back, and I will never ever forget all the good times we shared. I will help Betty in any way I can. I know you are with Jason and Jessica, you rest now, your work here on Earth is done. Please watch over us and I won't say goodbye, I'll just hope someday when it's my time, that I'll see you again my Cousin. Fly high like an Eagle and Ride Free Hoolio !!!!!!!!!!!!!
