“ I knew Danny since he and his sisters moved to Johnson Fork.
Danny was always kind, friendly to everyone and a dear friend.
Sandy married into our family and Danny never failed to talk every time we met. I am so sorry for his sisters and family. I now live 4 hours away and will not be able to attend his service. Prayers for everyone.

“ Danny and I met in grade school and then graduated high school together. I attended lodge with Danny many times and always looked forward to seeing my friend whenever I visited Greenville Lodge. Danny was one of those rare people who never saw a bad thing in anyone. Prayers for Danny’s family and many friends. Rest In Peace my brother.
