“ Just found out that David had passed away. I am so sorry and extend my condolences to the family. David and I were close friends from 3rd grade to high school. We rode the bus together many miles each day for years usually sitting side by side. He loved to read on the bus including Pecos Bill books and classical books like the Iliad and the Odyssey by ancient Greek author Homer. We once got left by the bus at Millard-Hensley when we were out back and the bus came and we didn't know it. We walked and hitched rides home. After he came back from the Navy and I was practicing law in Salyersville he invited me to dinner. I would sometimes see him at Frederick & May but we lost touch after I moved to Etown. He was always a nice, kind and pleasant person and a good friend. Perhaps we will meet again.
