“ They'll never be another like Auntie Di, she had a hand in all of us kids being raised up, baby setting, or running around. When she had to go to the nursing home after her fall, she wasn't the same anymore. She left a good Christian testimony behind, that is a comfort for us left here to mourn. Between her ol jelopies and her adventurous spirit, we were never short of funny Di stories. She loved family gatherings, holidays, or any activity involving food and fun. We will all miss her so much💔💔💔

“ Dacey was one of the most God fearing , Jesus loving women you will ever meet. She never failed to talk about the goodness of God. She loved to cook especially sweets and everything had to have coconut in it!! Lol, she will forever be loved and missed . Until we meet again my beautiful friend always know that you will forever be loved.
