“ Remember many enjoyable times at Tip and Roxie's especially when Kathryn and Cecil were visiting. My Dad was first cousin to Cecil and mother was an Arnett cousin.

“ Dodie was one of my favorite people! I corresponded with her many times regarding the Anderson family and would see her at the Anderson reunions in Ada, Ohio. I lost contact with her several years ago and have often wondered what happened. She was on my mind today and I just happened to do an Internet search and to my dismay, I found her obituary. My sincerest condolences to her children and grandchildren.....she was a great lady who was a living link to my heritage in Magoffin County, Kentucky! The family circle is unbroken. God bless all of you! Kyle Huffman, great-grandson of Roscoe and Nellie Anderson

“ So sorry for your loss. I remember playing with you girls when we were little. My Mom, Pansy, would always visit when you came to Magoffin. She loved your Mom.
