“ My name is Amanda Elliott I am Charles and Betty Higgins daughter granddaughter of Norsie Blanton. Aunt Dorothy will be truly missed. I remember as a child going to her house for visits and you could always smell something baking or cooking, I really loved the smells of her house and her biscuits and apple jam she always had something that smelled so wonderful and delicious. She always said you have to know how to cook before you could teach.

Our condolences to her family , with love and prayers.

“ My name is Patty Earnest, daughter of Helen and Chester Blanton. My mother is/was her sister. I hadn't been to see her in a long time but would call sometimes just to hear her voice. I dearly loved the way she cooked. I remember her having the quilting frame down with a quilt in it and sitting around it talking and stitching. She would get tickled with my brother-in-law set there with us tacking a jean quilt by sewing in the tacks so Dorothy could tie it off. I am going to miss her laugh, hugs and kisses. You will be sorely missed!

“ My name is Betty Higgins. Aunt Dorothy was my mother's sister. She will be sorely missed by my families. When we used to visit her we would enjoy her freshly baked biscuits, eggs, gravy ,fried bologna, and many cups of coffee with conversation unending. I sent her a Christmas card one time when we lived in San Angelo, Texas and told her we would travel all the way from Texas to her house just for one of her grand biscuits. We will always have many fond memories of her and her family.

“ Sympathy to the family in Dorothy's transition to heavens shore.

I'm sure Mr. Sam, Uncle Sherd and Aunt Janie welcomed her along with so many others.

May your memories be of comfort to you all.
