“ So sorry to hear this news, Lesia was a very nice person and I remember her from our High School years. Such a loving person. I will always remember her kindness to others. This breaks my heart, The family is in my thoughts and prayers for strength and peace in your hearts as you go through these next few days and weeks learning how to deal with your loss of a loving daughter, sister and a mother and grandmother. May God put peace and comfort in your hearts and mind.. Thinking of you all..

“ I will never forget how hilarious sissy Lesia was and her beautiful contagious smile. She also loved her coffee cakes and sunflower seeds! It was an honor to help care for her and I have comfort knowing she is at peace and pain-free. Love and miss you always sissy!

*Such a loss one of the sweetest people you could ever meet. I met Lesia over 37 years ago we had algebra 1 together an we had tables for 2 people. An that's how our friendship started. She never changed the same gal always. It's been since 2016 that we had a really serious talk an it was on Facebook . We both realized we had a common love for the Lord 🙏 we talk for an hour . An promised we'd try to meet up to have dinner some time when she was up in salyersville.. Well we never got too 😞😞. I'm thankful she's planned to go to heaven an by how much she talked about the Lord she is now where she longed to be 🌸
❤️🌸❤️🌸❤️🌸❤️🌸❤️🌸❤️🌸❤️ Believing that some day we will get to have that visit in Heaven .Prayers for her family for the Lord to give you comfort at this time an if your not saved her hearts desire was for her family to meet her in Heaven ...❤️🌸 You can see her again thru Christ.
🌸❤️🌸❤️🙏🙏🙏*
