“ Was neighbors with his family on Lee Prater Street in Salyersville, Kentucky for years. He helped me out of lots of problems down through the years. Most memorable getting the snake out of the corn patch early one morning. No more putting beans in corn. Loved to hear him sing on the front steps. Grew up with his Step Sons like brothers. Jeff and Neil still love you although never see you now. Larry will be forever in my memories. To his children I got to know thru your Mother's side. Ricky I went to school with. Lots of memories with this family. Sure miss my neighbors.

“ This man has impacted more people than we can ever know. He was the one who inspired my guitar playing. It hurts my heart to hear such news but he lived a long time for this day he has sung and preached about. He will certainly be missed but never forgotten... especially while I'm living. Rest easy my friend while you wear that white robe you always sung about.
