“ *Haroldretta Gwen , I was very saddened to hear of the passing of your husband Joe . By reading his obituary I can only feel that he was a wonderful person and a great companion and father to you and your family. The greatest thing I understood was that he was a Christian and God has now welcomed him into his keeping and one day you will be with him again. I pray that god will give you peace and understanding as you live your life with many good memories of the past an d thank God for your long life with Joe , god bless you and yours, my prayers and thoughts will be with you.
