“ Forever in my memories I will look back on how you held your composure. The way you were quiet, soft spoken, honest, firm but loving.

I wish time were trapped in a bottle so we could catch up on how much we have missed out on, since the miles apart keep us so distant. I trust your up in heaven watching down on us, knowing our whole story and enjoying your grandchildren, your great grandchildren.

I will miss you, I know I will one day see you again. Until then, keep smiling down at us. we can feel it like the rays of the sun warming our skin to our hearts.

I love you.
