“ One of the most loving people in this old world who would go out of her way to show how much you ment to her! As a lad of 5 we were at Jencys house on Easter but she would not allow me to be with out I remember a small easter rabit she gave me. I have been around the world and always felt the prayers she sent! I will truly miss her love! But will always carrie it with me God Bless the Family

“ To the family,I can only relate to what your feeling and the lost, empty and uncertain feeling is real and is hard to deal with. I can only express my thoughts and prayers for you. Not many words make anything better but you have been with one of the greatest and most genuine lady for a long time and that has a lot of value inside of you and who you are today. Anybody who knows your family is grieving with... as well as for you. I can only say Godspeed to her on her new journey and rejoicing with loved ones who have left a little sooner and watch over you everyday.My most sincere condolences, Ted Jones
