“ I miss her so much. She'd let me do her makeup even though I was little and couldn't even get the same amount or color on both eyes or put lipstick on her. She'll never get to see her future grandchildren or be at mine and my brothers weddings.

“ I still miss her to this day and think of her often. She was a very loving and understanding person. Her patience went far beyond anything I'd seen in someone. I pray for her children every night. If it wasn't for her, I'd of never known what it was to be like a mom. God bless her soul and her family. I loved her like a sister and always will.
