

Marjorie "Mickey" Culbertson

April 19, 1934 - July 16, 2018

Marjorie "Mickey" Culbertson, age 84, a resident of Mash Fork Road in Salyersville, Kentucky; passed away Monday, July 16, 2018 at her home with family and friends present.

Mickey was born April 19, 1934 in Indiana the daughter of the late John and Marjorie Bray. Husband, James Culbertson, and son, James W. Culbertson II, David Paul Culbertson, sister, Donna Peppin, and brother, John Donald Bray.

Mickey graduated high school and attended college in Chicago, Illinois. She worked as a life guard for the Red Cross, secretary at the phone company before leaving to raise her children, a bookkeeper for the family businesses, Blackie's Welding and Jims Welding, after the children were grown. She enjoyed reading, singing, fellowshiping, traveling, while sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ with her husband. She loved spending time with her family and having a significant role in their lives.

Those left to mourn includes children, Donald M. Culbertson of Tuscan, Arizona, Susie Morrow and husband Jesse of Tenmile, Oregon, Robin LeMaster of Salyersville, Kentucky, John Culbertson and wife Jennifer of Fredricktown, Missouri, Howard Culbertson and wife Stacy of Salyersville, twenty-three grandchildren, eighteen great grandchildren, a host of family and friends love and miss her.

A Celebration of Life service for Marjorie Culbertson will be conducted Saturday, July 21, 2018 from 12:00 PM till 4:00 PM at her home on 1265 Mash Fork Road in Salyersville, Kentucky. Contributions can be made to Appalachian Hospice in her honor.

Arrangements are entrusted and under direction of the Salyersville Funeral Home in Salyersville, Kentucky.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ I'm sorry Robin my condolences with the family prayers goes out 💜

---

Callie Hickman - July 19, 2018 at 03:34 PM