“ What can you really say about this amazing woman. 11 years ago is when I first met her. She took me into her family. She was the kindest and most loving woman I've ever known. I am so blessed to be able to call her my Mamaw. She taught me so many things above all she taught me to love God. She is already missed. I love you Maw always! R. I. P. I'm glad that you're back in Paws arms! ”

“ There is too much to detail about the great woman my mother was. She loved to see my wife Connie and I when we'd come to see her. Mom Loved Jesus, Loved her family and Loved and enjoyed people. Reflecting on her life to her last breath, the end of someone who Loves Jesus is beautiful because it's just the beginning 🙏❤️ ”
