“ Uncle Joe I wish I would have gotten to see you again before you passed away. I love you so much even though we lived so far apart. I remember coming to your trailer when we would come to kentucky to mam and paps and I would walk down the road to see you and sherry and the kids as soon as we got there. I had so much fun with you and loved every minute of the time we spent when we was there. I loved going and seeing you and the rest of the boys working on the coal hill. How I wish time could stand still I am so hurt over this and the fact that we all have to get older. I wish so much that we could be sitting on mam's porch swing again and running up and down the branch. I love you and I will never forget you I also remember the watch you gave me for my birthday one year you always called me sissy and I how I wish I still had that little gold watch but along with everything else it burnt in a house fire. I know you are in heaven with mam and pap and uncle dan now and uncle buck and someday we will all get to see you guys again and sit on mams swing and be happy again. Till then keep looking down on all of us and your children. I love u Rest in Peace my wonderful Uncle Joe
