“ Was a friend of his in our youth and like many kids, we lost touch after high school. Many years later, I ended up relying on a wheelchair as my main mode of transportation. My wheelchair ramp was in need of repair so a neighbor suggested a man named Rick. When he showed up to repair the ramp, our friendship resumed.

His family should be proud of him. He was a great man and would do anything for a friend. Was always happy, and he never said a bad word about anyone. May he Rest In Peace!
