“ Hate this so bad. You were suppose to come back over to Dallas house and have campfires and sit and around and enjoy the talks this summer. Dallas tried to feed you the last time you were over and you said no way. You were losing weight. Your cough had gotten somewhat better. We are sure gonna miss you. Had some fun times at concerts too. Until we meet again ole friend.

“ Man I don't even know where to start or what to say Rick, You were my best friend 7 concert buddy. We sure did have great times at all the shows we went to together. Rick, You were the epitome of the word best friend, & You WERE the greatest Dad i saw when it came to you and Dustin, that boy never wanted for nothing because you worked so hard to provide for him and your other son, Brandon. I just know in y heart that you are now in Heaven with your sons, Mommy and Daddy, and that will give me comfort. Brandon, Kathy, and Family, I hope you will forgive me for not coming into the funeral home to pay my respects in person, I just can't do it since I lost my Mommy and now Rick makes 9 people in my family or close to me that have passed since March & I have to much anxiety. Brandon, I would like to talk to you when you get a chance, call me at the store or my # is in Rick's phone. May the good Lord wrap his comforting arms around you all as you lay Rick to rest. RIP Rick, I will miss you terribly, and I hope to see you again someday. Your friend, Jeff Ross.

“ Heartfelt condolences, prayers and sympathy to the family of Ricky 🙏🙏🙏.
Ricky was a gentle soul and truly cared for others; he met the pain of life and continued to keep a smile.
His light will continue to shine for those who were blessed to have known him.
RIP Ricky 🌹

“Rick was a great neighbor and a wonderful friend. He always would greet me in the morning or when I came home from work. He was always up early even after he had retired from Continetal Conveyors. He never ever complained even though he had lost so many family members in such a short time. He loved his family with all his heart and soul. He will be sadly missed by Richard and myself. We are going to miss him. Go rest high on that Mountain dear friend.

“*Brandon and family, I am so sorry to hear about Ricky. We have been friends since grade school. We always talked whenever we saw each other. My husband and him would usually meet at VIP station as Elden went out to work in the mornings. We had such a good visit with him at Founder’s Day. Please know you all will be in my thoughts and prayers today and in the days ahead.
