“ I and the office staff are very sorry for your loss. We would like to celebrate the life Ms Clevenger had. Please let us know if there is any charity that we could make a donation to in Ms Clevenger's name. We are very thankful to each of you for being with Ms Clevenger during her difficult time in the hospital and the nursing facility during her injury and illness. We are especially grateful for your courage and compassion in carrying out her living will. You are in our prayers. Sincerely, Dr Arms
