“*"Aunt" Sue - - - I loved you very much. I loved your presence at Ivyton; you and your whole family were so full of life, laughter, smarts, good looks, and good stories. Your door your table, and your porch were open to all of us and you welcomed us, fed us, protected and showed us your love every day of the week we saw you. You were a fine woman - - -you raised good, honest, intelligent children, and you made everyone feel at home. You are part of my warmest childhood memories, and we all loved you and appreciated you.
