“ Teresa is and was my sisters' mother-in-law. She had a wonderful heart and from day one treated myself and my family like one of her own. No wonder we called her mother Teresa. A life lived well, but gone too soon! Love you Teresa, I sure will miss your smile and words of wisdom. My prayers and condolences to the Whitacre, and Minix family and the many other family members she had and also to those who were not blood. She will truly be missed!!

“ So sad to hear of Teresa's passing. I had the privilege of caring for Teresa on many occasions, and I must say she was always the most absolute sweetest lady even when she felt horrible. She had such the sweetest heart. She loved her family...talked so highly of her children, sisters, and brothers. We talked about church on several occasions. I am sure she is singing and praising right now.
