“ I meet Timmy as I called him when I was 17 years old and he was my first love my children's dad and a good man. We have been through our ups and downs but always remained friends. I was married to him for 10 years and still to the very end he was my friend and still my family. There's so many memories I can't put all of them into words. But my favorite I think is when he became a dad to our daughter and he loved that he thought she looked like him. He will forever be in my heart

“ I have nothing but Wonderful memories when it comes to Tim. He and I became became great friends through out the crazy years we hung out together. I never heard him raise his voice and he always had some reasoning as to why something had happened for what ever reason. The only time I remember him being upset was with a couple of guys that he was told to be ganging up on his Brother and I have never gotten to Middlefork so fast in my life. He was bound that NO~ONE was going to touch his brother and he was right. No one did. He sure loved his brother Andy And his Sister. He said that she was always hard on him but he also knew that she was only looking out for him and wanted to keep him outta trouble... Fly High my good friend My heart has a special place for you. ♥♥♥♥
