“ My favorite memory of Tyler would have to be just a few days ago walking into the dollar store while he was walking out and we both stopped and greeted each other and I was just happy he remembered me bc the last time I saw him he was just a little boy and after greeting one another he reached out his arms and hugged me and I hugged him right back and I said I love ya bub and he just said you to and I told him I'd see him later as we parted. And this was only about 2 or 3 days ago. So I thank God for allowing me to hug this young man and tell him I love him one more time. Prayers for everyone's lives that this young man touched.

“ I was heartbroken to hear this he was so very nice to my family during the snow storm in January if not for him coming to get me n my 2 children & 2 week old grandson we may have froze to death after our heat went out. I'm sorry for ur loss as I know what ur going through myself. He was a friend to my late son also.
